

OMA Section on Primary Care Mental Health Summer Continuing Professional Development Sessions Most Relevant Details

What? There are two independent programs:

- A) Clinical Pearls in Primary Care Psychiatry (In-Person “Live” Session)
- B) Practical Introduction to General Practice Psychotherapy (Distance Education “Live” Session)

Who?

These are two interactive small group learning programs are hosted by the Ontario Medical Association Section on Primary Care Mental Health.

Where?

- A) Clinical Pearls in Primary Care Psychiatry – This program is at the OMA Offices in Toronto (see map).
- B) Practical Introduction to General Practice Psychotherapy – This program is by phone and so you can attend by phone from the comfort of your home or office. And yet these sessions are still fully MainPro + accredited.

When? (each day’s session can be taken individually or the entire program can be taken.):

- A) Clinical Pearls in Primary Care Psychiatry – August 13th to 17th 2018 (9:00 AM to 12:15 PM)
- B) Practical Introduction to General Practice Psychotherapy – August 13th to 17th 2018 (6:30 to 9:30 PM)

How to Register?

- A) Clinical Pearls in Primary Care Psychiatry – apply at MMS2018@mcmaster.ca
- B) Practical Introduction to General Practice Psychotherapy – apply at michaelpare@rogers.com OR call 416-229-2399 Ext. 125 (Ada or Anna): Pay by Visa or Cheque.

What is the Accreditation? Both programs are MainPro +

- A) Clinical Pearls in Primary Care Psychiatry: This Group Learning program has been certified by the National Office of the College of Family Physicians of Canada for up to 20 MainPro+ credits.
- B) Practical Introduction to General Practice Psychotherapy: This Group Learning program has been certified by the National Office of the College of Family Physicians of Canada for up to 30 MainPro+ credits.